

Nice To Meet You!

The driving assumption behind the S.H.A.R.E. tool is that two things drive evangelism: (1) relationships and (2) hospitality. Paul models for us in 1 Thessalonians a desire to not just share the gospel, but share our lives. This is a tool that will help the ordinary believer answer the question: “how do I form relational connections?” An additional aim of this tool is to offer a model that is reproducible in the long run. The hope is that this tool could drive a culture change at First Orlando and make it really difficult for people to go to hell if they live in Orlando!

THE S.H.A.R.E TOOL CONSISTS OF FIVE MISSIONAL PRACTICES:

S - SENSE AN OPPORTUNITY

- Who do I already have chemistry with?
- Who do I see regularly?
- Who likes me?
- Who listens to me?
- Who opens up to me?

H - HEAR THEIR STORY

- Seek to understand, before being understood

A – ASK GOOD QUESTIONS

- Questions create trust currency
- Questions communicate care

- Possible questions to ask:
 - Where did you grow up?
 - Where did you buy that shirt?
 - What is giving you trouble in life?
 - What is bringing you joy in life?
 - Where do you hang out?
 - What do you do for fun?
 - Tell me more about that?
 - What does success look like for you?

R – RECOGNIZE NEEDS

- Would our city, neighborhood, and neighbors miss us if we weren't here?
- Potential needs to look for:
 - Babysitting
 - Food
 - Clothes
 - Car pooling
 - Friends
 - Debt

E – ENJOY TIME AND A MEAL TOGETHER

- Nothing is better than intentional time spent together!
- Good friends + good food = great conversations
- Enjoying a meal with someone is one of the most spiritual things you could do. Jesus did this often.
- Possible places to take people:
 - Starbucks
 - Foxtail
 - Your home
 - Disney Springs
 - Chick – Fil – A
 - Lazy Moon

"So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to SHARE with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us" - 1 Thessalonians 2:8 ESV
