- Distinction in genders
- Social well-being and gender roles

3. Paul is concerned about order within community in the issue of gender distinctiveness. Why do you think Paul wants to emphasize and celebrate gender distinctiveness? What implications do you think that has for the church today?

Leader Context: The Church in 2023 certainly has a challenge related to gender issues. But note that even in the early church there were challenges to the issues of gender:

- The broader Corinthian culture was attempting to blend gender together
- Corinthians despised gender distinctives
- Corinthians made light of the complementary nature of male and female coming together as family
