The Gathering

1 Cor 11:17-22 Week of October 22, 2023

-	ONG
	his Ice Breaker Question: Have you ever been blindsided by someone in a relati	onship? Either a friendship, a family relationship, or a work situation?
BEL	EVE
Have	someone in your group read aloud: 1 Corinthians 11:17-22
Ask t	hese questions to prompt group discussion:
 Paul is addressing the manner in which people gather, as believers, for a common meal. What have been your experiences, both good and bad, in gathering with other Christians to share a common meal?
C	ome of the poor church members were blindsided and felt rejected at this hristian meal. Has there ever been a time when you felt rejected by a hristian group?
	aul is thinking about the Gospel as the reorienting point of this disfunction
p	the church. He will also bring out the Lord's Supper as a way to reorient eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward?
po ho Lead	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context:_ The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine
p h Lead But, i	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine n Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with
P h Lead But, i	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine in Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with acceptance of Jesus, then we all have a place at the table.
p h Lead But, i	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine n Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with
po ho Lead But, i •	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine in Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with acceptance of Jesus, then we all have a place at the table. If God so loved the World then when He brings the World to a Christian event, po ho Lead But, i •	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine in Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with acceptance of Jesus, then we all have a place at the table. If God so loved the World then when He brings the World to a Christian event, the role of the church is to welcome back the prodigal family member.
Po ho Lead But, i • • • • • • • •	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine in Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with acceptance of Jesus, then we all have a place at the table. If God so loved the World then when He brings the World to a Christian event, the role of the church is to welcome back the prodigal family member. OME:
P h Lead But, i • • • • • • •	eople to God's vision for church community. How do you see the Gospel elping to reorient the church anytime she gets wayward? er Context: The Gospel is this: We are more sinful than we can possibly imagine in Jesus, we are more loved that we can believe. If we are all made in God's image and we all respond to the Gospel with acceptance of Jesus, then we all have a place at the table. If God so loved the World then when He brings the World to a Christian event, the role of the church is to welcome back the prodigal family member. OME: